

Art Kennedy Ross Red Deer Alberta

Jul 11

Arthur Kennedy Ross was convicted of sexual assault and sentenced to two years' imprisonment. His application to appeal the sentence was dismissed in 1994.

He has been attending gospel meetings this past year. The Workers spoke to police and were told that because gospel meetings were in a public place, there was nothing they could do to stop him from coming. He was told to sit at the back and be the first one to leave. The last few meetings that were held he came with his daughter and he lingered at the back, but never spoke with anyone (because everyone knew who he was). It was very uncomfortable for those who faithfully attended with children. He was not allowed fellowship meetings due to the homes being privately owned.

arthur-kennedy-ross-appeal-dismissedDownload