

Joann Miller – Leaving the meetings

I've said for years that I would stay in meetings until God told me to leave. Well, that happened the last Sunday of July 2023. Actually, He didn't tell me to leave the fellowship - He told me I wasn't to go to meetings anymore.

About Me

My great-grands were among the first to profess in California. I was raised in a professing home and still attend meetings.

Location

Roseburg, OR