

Lisa Grosso emphasizing the need for accuracy on the lists of allegations being spread

If we don't get lists and details within these lists right before they are made public, all it does is provide those that do want to discredit all of our efforts for victim-survivors.

In our efforts for change in our fellowship, we can't afford to get these details wrong.
@Lynnea

There is a big difference between a box checked for active or inactive worker and what that means for us with upcoming special meetings.