

Rachel Hazelwood expressing a fresh and honest look at the biblical concept of “The great falling away”

I'll try again here 🙏 I also wondered what the “great falling away” means. I used to think maybe it did mean those who are leaving this fellowship.

But you're right @Christine, I now see that the form/traditions are separate from worshipping Jesus. So much evil I do not want to be associated with.

I am not sure but it seems only the KJV uses the term “falling away” and the NLT for example says, (2 Thess 2 v3) “That day will not come until there is a great rebellion against God...”

And in Hebrews it uses, “those who turn away from God”.

I can't see how caring about all these horrific things that have and are happening, is “falling away” from God.
